

We're Hiring!

Shakespeare in Delaware Park (SDP) is expanding and in need of Teaching Artists for various educational programs.

Each year SDP partners with K-12 public and charter schools, senior centers and residences, libraries, and other organizations across five Western NY counties to bring live Shakespeare and theatre education directly to its neighboring communities.

We are looking for compassionate and engaging artists who love teaching and are ready to share their passion for Shakespeare. Theatre education degree or similar experience preferred, though not required.

Benefits

- Flexible scheduling based on employee and program availability
- Competitive pay
- Professional development opportunities
- Participation in our off-season, education show

Recent Program Highlights

- Storytelling and body movement workshops for senior caregivers
- K-5 academic enrichment programming on Buffalo's East Side
- Character building workshops at libraries across WNY
- Award-winning "Shakespeare's Greatest Hits" monologue series on PBS's education portal
- In-depth, high school 'ShakespearIENCE' summer internship program
- Professional audition workshops at Buff State and Fredonia
- Emerging Artists of Color paid mentorship program for college students
- Summer programming with Massachusetts Ave. Boys and Girls Club on Buffalo's West Side

Interested?

Interested candidates should forward their letter of interest (or introductory video) and resume to Gretchen Didio at sdpeducation@shakespeareindelawarepark.org.

